WAR NEAR AS WILSON CALLS EXTRA SESSION FOR APRIL 2

Teutons Retreating to Victory

BIG SHAKE-UP IN WILSON CABINET DEMANDED BY N. Y. TIMES

Democratic Journal Declares Government Itself Not Fully Prepared

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—An immediate re-organization of the cabinet along patriotic, non-partisan lines is demanded today by the New York Times (Democratic), in an editorial declaring that only the government itself is unprepared—"yet the government must carry on the war."

"At such a time patriotism commands that the call to duty go forth to the country's great men; equally it commands them to answer the summons by acceptance," says the editorial.

"The line of party fades from view, the people are one. Men whose experience and capacity, whose names command confidence, should sit at the president's council table. We are not ready for the war, we are deplorably unready. The country's financiers are prepared, they will respond with instant service, knowing well what they have to do. The captains of industry are prepared, they will be swiftly marshaled for war service. It is the government itself which is unprepared, yet the government must carry on the war. It must be with the utmost speed put in readiness for the trial that extraordinary work can be successfully undertaken only by extraordinary men."

U. S. PLANS NEW PACT WITH RUSS

LONDON, Mar. 21.—Simultaneously with the issuance of a ukase granting prisoners amnesty to the new Russian government today began wholesale arrests everywhere of bureaucracy adherents. It is reported that the czar and his family are among those detained.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 21.—The American government intends to undertake negotiation of a new commercial treaty with Russia after the new government of that country has been recognized.

The first steps toward recognition came today when Ambassador Bakhmeteff presented to the state department formal notice that the new regime has been created—amounting to a request for recognition.

PETROGRAD, Mar. 21.—A general political amnesty was decreed in a ukase issued today by the Russian provisional government.

"Yielding to the imperial demands of the national conscience, and in commemoration of the definite triumph of the new regime, founded upon right and liberty," the ukase declared, "we order a general political amnesty."

New Russia proposes to raise a great "liberty loan." Leaders of the provisional government today said plans were under way for floating of such a bond issue to be subscribed by the people of Russia.

Russian troops at the front received news of the overthrow of the autocracy and setting up of a democracy with acclaim, according to dispatches received today from field headquarters and made public by the provisional government.

TEUTON REVOLT RUMOR STIRRING AMSTERDAM

AMSTERDAM, Mar. 21.—Rumors of a German revolution were circulated on the stock exchange here today.

So far as was evident from undisturbed telegraph connections of railway lines and regular arrival here of German newspapers, there was no basis for the report.

The rumors, however, aroused intense excitement.

FITZPATRICK SEAL

SANTA CLARA, Cal., Mar. 21.—Benjamin Fitzpatrick, Santa Clara University's star pitcher, has signed a Seal contract.

5 Americans Died When Diver Sank S. S. Vigilancia

Third Officer Niels P. North; C. Adershold, assistant engineer at Atala, Ala.; Esplan Lopez, mess boy; F. Brown, passenger; Joseph Siberia, quartermaster.

The first complete report of the arrival of Captain Borum and eight members of the City of Memphis' crew at Glasgow, was from the consul there today.

WOMAN CANDIDATE FOR O. U. H. S. BOARD

For the first time in the history of the Orange Union High School Board of Trustees, a woman is a candidate for office in that organization.

Miss Sue Scarritt today announced her candidacy for high school trustee, to succeed D. P. Crawford, whose term expires.

The election will be held on April 2. Miss Scarritt was put forward as a candidate by the Orange Parent-Teacher Association.

JAPAN AS DEFENSE STEP BARS BARING OF PACIFIC SHIP NEWS

TOKIO, Mar. 21.—Prohibition against publication of news of the arrival and departure of all Japanese merchant sailing in the Pacific and Indian oceans was announced by the government today.

Official announcement was made at Tokyo a week or more ago of the presence of a German raider in Pacific waters. The censorship on ship movements announced above is a measure of protection against depredations of such a raider.

BUTTE COUNTY MOVES FOR FARM BUREAU

CHICO, Mar. 21.—A farm bureau such as has been formed in a number of other counties of the state, is to be organized in Butte county at a mass meeting which has been called for Chico on the evening of April 21 under the auspices of the Business Men's Association. This is a step towards securing the appointment of a county farm adviser for Butte county by the University of California and the Board of Supervisors co-operating.

MAN, 58, PULLS STRING ATTACHED TO TRIGGER OF RIFLE, SLAYS SELF

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 21.—Carefully trying a string to the trigger of a rifle and putting the muzzle to his head, Andy Myers, 58, said to be wealthy, suicided in an alley early today. He had been in ill health. Myers has a sister residing at Butte, Calif.

SHASTA COUNTY MAKES WAR UPON COYOTES

REDDING, Mar. 21.—War has been declared on the coyotes of Shasta county and the United States Biological Survey has taken a hand as an ally of the Shasta county ranchers. The Shasta Chamber of Commerce has been notified that a representative of the survey will be sent to Shasta county to work out the details of a campaign against coyotes. Of late rabies has been prevalent among these animals and the danger not only to stock but to men as well has been great.

FLYWEIGHT CHAMP OF ENGLAND HURT IN WAR

LONDON, March 21.—Young Dando of Newcastle, flyweight champion of North England, has been wounded in the firing line in Northern France. Dando is a shifty little boxer. His best fights were against Jimmy Wilde, who shaded him three times over the 20, 15 and 10-round routes.

Hindenburg Master Stroke Foils Ally Spring Drive Plans

BY JOHN GRANDENS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, via wireless to the United Press, March 21.—Germany is retreating to a victory; another master stroke has been achieved by Field Marshal von Hindenburg and the entente's plans for a great spring offensive have been destroyed.

This, in brief, is the official explanation given for the first time today to the United Press of Germany's retirement on the western front.

Germany is retreating to a victory because her armies are taking their places in new positions, long prepared.

These positions embody the newest lessons of the war. They will force the enemy to learn their trade all over again.

They would astound tacticians if their full details were revealed, according to German officials.

MAY CHANGE ENTIRE ASPECT OF WAR

They may effect a transformation of the entire character of the war. In the meantime Germany has been clearing the whole country in front of these new positions. They are miles back of the present line. The whole country intervening between the old German line and the new one has by necessity of war and necessity of the new German plans been made a wilderness. Roads have been destroyed; the whole terrain has been made difficult of passage. All means of communication have been effected: Some villages have utterly disappeared. Some have been only partially wrecked. Not only has a free zone of fire been obtained by such a procedure, but the enemy must come forward slowly over ground so hazardous of passage.

In their new positions the German forces will face an enemy either hurriedly brought up over this difficult wilderness and because of this hurry, insufficiently supplied, or an enemy which has come forward very slowly because of necessity of building up the country.

MILLION TEUTONS TOIL FOR MONTHS

In either event the enemy will be at a disadvantage. Months of toil by a million German soldiers have been expended in perfecting the new German line. The German forces will be entrenched in the strongest possible defenses, protected by forests of barbed wire entanglements. A free fire zone in front will give them clear view of the enemy. Guns have been carefully ranged over all this forefield. The enemy must come up; must dig itself in; must arrange to transport millions of tons of munitions, of food and of supplies over the wilderness left behind by the Germans in their retreat. The allies will face German forces prepared for every contingency and protected as an army was never protected before by long preparations.

It has been impossible to carry out this program of a retreat leaving behind a wilderness without severe hardship to the French civilian inhabitants. But the move is demanded.

NEW GERMAN LINES ON CHOSEN GROUND

Officials also point out that the new line selected by the German army chiefs is not one picked haphazard. It was not one where the fortunes of battle have forced digging in and a consequent strengthening as the old line. The battle of the Marne, which was unfavorable to Germany, forced German troops to make their stand wherever they could, irrespective of natural advantages. They have had to withstand many months of pressure by entente troops since that time. Therefore, the old line was not taken up because of special strategic advantages.

The new line is. It lies in the positions where engineers and strategical experts have chosen every feature of topography as an aid. All natural advantages have been utilized and developed.

All this change comes at the very point where Germany's enemies had planned a new spring offensive—and an offensive backed this time with redoubled power. The French and British had planned to take the initiative from the old positions which they had perfected.

TEUTON RETREAT GIVES THEM INITIATIVE

The German withdrawal secures for Germany the initiative for the fighting, while putting their enemies at a disadvantage because they will lack prepared positions.

As officials here express it—the entente troops must now go forward over deserted fields into uncertainty, facing, unknowing, the sinister possibilities of the latest master stroke of Hindenburg.

German experts think weeks and months will pass before the entente can strike at the real bulwarks of the new German system. Even before this strike they will be compelled to make enormous sacrifices.

German soldiers have labored like ants to change the face of the country. Not only will Germany have the advantage of a carefully prepared line in her new move but army officers pointed out today through shortening her front, Germany can save her offensive power. That saving may be of decisive importance in future operations to follow very soon.

The shortened line will free a large number of troops. Not only will Germany have these men—but the victorious army which conquered Rumania is likewise free.

Chosen Teuton Lines to Be Giant Battle Scene

LONDON, Mar. 21.—The German retreat has apparently not yet reached the "Hindenburg line" today. Nevertheless, a slowing up in the speed of the retrograde movement and a stiffening of the fighting, reported in dispatches from both the British and French fronts, indicated that the moment when German troops will settle down in their prepared positions and make a stand was fast approaching.

The line on which fighting was in progress today apparently extends southward from a point near Arras to St. Leger, Veuil, Canizy (all on the British front) and thence on the French front, to Roupy, Tergnier and the St. Quentin canal.

BOY BANDIT CREATES REIGN OF TERROR IN L. A. ROOMING HOUSE

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 21.—There were lively doings at a Los Angeles street rooming house early today when a young armed bandit undertook the feat of holding up everybody in the building. After robbing the landlady of 25 cents, he knocked her unconscious with a "cop stick" as he did John Powell, who lost $2, and James Benton, who was forced to disrobe and

U. S. WILL JOIN ALLIES IF WAR COMES, STATE DEPT. SAYS

It Is Also Indicated That Hostilities With Kaiser Are Inevitable

WASHINGTON, March 21.

The state department today made it clear that in case of possible war operations there must be co-operation with the allies. The department also indicated that it believes that war is inevitable.

A cabinet official said that in case of war, America will probably align with the allies, that an American fleet will replace the allied warships in the western Atlantic, that ports will be opened to the allies for all purposes and that unlimited credit will be extended to them for the purchase of supplies, munitions, etc.

It is improbable that an armed expedition will be sent to Europe, as the allies have plenty of men.

The national defense council today is convening behind closed doors on the question of co-operation of munition makers.

Secretary Daniels today directed advancing the date of the opening of destroyer bids eleven days.

It is officially learned that President Wilson is not considering a change in his cabinet and that he might later give the Defense Council broader powers if necessary.

NEWSPAPER MEN HELD AS PLOTTERS IN N. Y. ENTER GUILTY PLEAS

NEW YORK, March 21.—Albert O. Sander and Carl N. Wunnenburg, former newspaper men who were charged by the government with launching a military enterprise against Great Britain from this country, today withdrew their pleas of not guilty and pleaded guilty in the United States district court here.

Judge Van Fleet, who heard the pleas, announced he would pass sentence tomorrow.

George Vaux Bacon, American newspaperman, one of several sent to England as alleged spies, testified against the men before the federal grand jury.

WALL ST. PRICES SOAR AS EXTRA SESSION IS CALLED BY WILSON

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—Wall street bid prices up throughout the entire list, following announcement of an extra session of Congress April 2 today. Opening prices of leaders were half to more than three points up.

GUARDS RESTORED TO CIVIL SERVICE STATE

WASHINGTON, Mar. 21.—President Wilson today issued an order restoring Guardsmen from the border to their former civil service status. This affects several thousand men.

EXECUTIVE DECIDES UPON SWEEPING ACTION TO MEET TEUTON AFFRONTS ON SEA

BY ROBERT J. BENDER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 21.—President Wilson today called congress into extra session for April 2. He has decided to meet Germany's high sea affronts with sweeping action.

The President today publicly proclaimed he will send a communication to congress regarding "grave matters of national policy which should be taken immediately under consideration."

War today seemed just ahead.

Congress will be asked to consider aggressive steps to be taken toward the imperial government. With a state of war admittedly existing as a result of U-boat attacks on American merchant ships, a declaration of war may result as the first action taken by congress. If the President does not ask a declaration of war, congress may demand one.

In any event, steps will be taken to put the American navy and army on a war footing. This footing will be of such proportions as these branches of the national defense have never before in the history of this country assumed.

Possibility of averting open hostilities with Germany appears to have been killed.

The President's decision was based on a tremendous appeal from the country for revenge for Germany's killing of American citizens and destruction of American property in contravention of all international law.

The President's course marks the end of his constant efforts—efforts which have been alike strongly commended and bitterly condemned—to keep this country at peace, even with Germany, in order that it might "perform the greater service of restoring reason to war-mad Europe."

In reaching his conclusion to lay before the Congress the grave problem of determining upon this government's national policy toward Germany, the President brought to an end a struggle for peace—not only with his advisers, but with himself—perhaps the most dramatic in history.

Holding out against arguments for positive warlike action until the last, the President was loathe to take a course which he believed might be construed as "forcing the issue."

Appeals From Cabinet

Appeals were made to him by his cabinet and through hundreds of telegrams from people of the country that aggressive action was demanded immediately "not only for the sake of America's conscience, but for the sake of the peace of the world."

In this connection, it is recalled that President Wilson, about a year ago, declared to some of his advisers that he had reason to believe if the United States entered the war actively, there would be a termination of the struggle within a few months.

His advisers told him within the last twenty-four hours that to assume now a positive stand against Germany would be to encourage the new Russian government, hearten the allied troops in the field, perhaps create an irrepressible demand in Germany for the overthrow of the autocracy there and bring lasting peace to the world vastly nearer.

It became known today that in the past few weeks many telegrams and much of the advice that have gone to the White House have counselled upon war, and have been frank in declarations that a high note of patriotism must be sounded at once; they have declared this to be no time for "waiting to hear from the country." They have declared the country must now have a leader who must tell the country and the people what they must do.

They have declared it is unally up to the President of the United States to decide on active steps against Germany and German military and naval ruthlessness and to lead the country without timidity over the question: "Will the country want me to do this?"

This, in effect, is what the President has been told by his closest and most trusted advisers and counselors; in effect, it was what was told to President Wilson at the cabinet meeting.

WILSON URGES WAR

DISCUSS UNIVERSAL SERVICE

Surface impressions of high officials today were that President Wilson and Secretary of War Baker shortly may confer with war college heads and Senator Chamberlain regarding the best form of universal service to urge before congress.

There will be powerful congressional pressure brought to bear for adopting at once such a land defense program.

Heads of the militia division of the war department, while unusually close mouthed today, showed similar activity to that displayed in that branch immediately preceding the president's mobilization of the national guard for border duty.

As land defense matters now stand, military heads have for weeks openly condemned a condition that gives them what many believe is an insufficient force even for some protection of the most important and strategic army buildings, railroad bridges and tunnels, etc., unless each state is called upon to furnish state troops for protection of such property within their respective borders.

Navy Militia Call Near

While navy department heads were as uncommunicative immediately following the extra session call, as were army officials, it was believed that the call for the mobilization of the naval militia is not far off—in fact, that such a call might precede any similar call for state land troops.

TORNADO KILLS 7 AND HURTS 8

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 21.—Seven persons were killed and eight injured in a tornado that today swept the country near Delmark.

Telegraphic advices received here indicate that emergency relief measures are being rushed to the stricken section.

CHICAGO GRAIN MART SHAKEN BUT LITTLE BY WILSON'S CALL

CHICAGO, Mar. 21.—The action of the President in calling Congress to meet in special session April 2 had little effect on the grain market at the opening. A slightly downward tendency was manifested, all futures showing fractional declines.

MILITARY SURVEY IS STARTED BY L. A. C. C.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 21.—With a view to listing all men of military experience who are not now affiliated with the national guard, the Chamber of Commerce today launched plans for a comprehensive military survey of the city. These men will be used in the formation of tentative volunteer companies and battalions for service in case of war.

The organization has telegraphed President Wilson offering its services to the government in any way needed.

TAFT AT RICHMOND TO DELIVER FIRST 'PAUL REVERE' TOUR SPEECH

RICHMOND, Va., March 21.—Former President William Howard Taft arrived here today for the first speech in his "Paul Revere" tour of the south and west to arouse the spirit of patriotism and preparedness in those sections. Dr. Taft will go from here to Greensboro, N. C. He will work his way south and west to Oklahoma City, where he closes his tour the last of this month, returning early April 1.

46 OF 105 INDICTED IN HOOSIER ELECTION FRAUDS PLEAD GUILTY

INDIANAPOLIS, Mar. 21.—Forty-six of the 105 indicted by the federal grand jury on election frauds today pleaded guilty. Others pleaded not guilty or filed demurrers.

EXPERT PRAISES METHODS USED BY 'POTATO KING' YOUNG

Eugene H. Grubb Says System
Of Beach Man Should Be Adopted In County

In the opinion of Eugene H. Grubb, the famous potato expert, who has been in Southern California for several weeks past giving demonstrations in potato planting, A. J. Young of Huntington Beach is a wonder.

Young is known locally as the "Orange County Potato King," and on visiting his ranch at Huntington Beach Grubb was very much surprised to find that Young was doing a work there and using a method that would be worth millions of dollars to tuber growers in California if adopted.

"Young is a Burbank, an Edison, a Lincoln," said Grubb. "He is one of those geniuses that are developed every once in a while. He is a sure enough potato grower. He grows them on a scientific basis.

"His knowledge of soils, fertility and plant foods is worth millions of dollars to potato growers of California. He has practically the same peatlands as the growers of the San Joaquin valley, yet he has been getting a yield of about 600 bushels of potatoes to the acre every year for the past twenty-two years, while the San Joaquin farmers have been exhausting their lands and reducing the production from 600 and 700 bushels per acre to 125 bushels.

"Young is the only man in the United States that I know of who is following the methods of growers in Great Britain. He crops to tubers only once a year. When the crop is harvested he plants leekums, which enrich his soil, instead of growing the second crop. He selects only the very best seed and does not try to grow two crops of spuds in one year. He is a wizard."

GOODIES SERVED BY H. S. COOKS WIN PRAISE OF S. A. MEN

86 Business Men Are Served
Splendid Luncheon At
Polytechnic Today

Some dandy good cooks are being developed in the Domestic Science Department of the Santa Ana High School.

Eighty-six business men of the city will subscribe to this statement, for a practical demonstration of this fact was given them at the regular weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce.

The luncheon was served in one of the rooms of the department at the high school, and the appointment, menu and service were spoken of in the highest terms.

All of the 15 girls and seventeen boys of the department participated in some way in preparation of the luncheon.

Principal Hammond was chairman and expressed his pleasure at the large attendance, as did also President R. R. Smith of the Board of Education. Secretary F. L. Andrews, Superintendent Cranston, Miss Grace Whitely and Miss Emma Weid of the Domestic Science Department.

By way of opening the program, George Shattuck, president of the Chamber of Commerce, suggested that business men and home owners of the city display the American flag at this time as an evidence that they would stand back of the government in this hour of trouble, and that the flags be floated until the country is once more safe.

Prof. Hammond in extending the members of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufacturers' Association welcome, spoke of the fine school plant here, stating that the schools of Orange county were among the best in the state and were strong features in attracting home-seekers. The high school plant here consists of twenty-two and a half acres of ground, with three magnificent buildings, costing nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

835 in High School
There are 835 pupils in the high school, and 56 in the Junior College, the latter offering a two year course, qualifying graduates to enter any university and complete a course in two years. There are forty-four teachers on the staff, twenty-one of them men and twenty-three women.

In speaking of the work of the domestic science department, he said that yesterday he had seen a dress and hat made by one of the pupils at a cash outlay of only $5.40.

He expressed the hope that the school next year would be able to add physical training, giving one hour three days a week to this important feature of school work.

At the conclusion of the scheduled addresses J. P. Baumgartner asked if any special effort was being made to teach students along general practical lines of mechanics in which they might qualify themselves to repair impaired electric service, plumbing, or do the many little things that frequently make it necessary for the home owner to engage the services of an expert.

Following adjournment those in attendance were grouped in front of the administration building and a picture was taken by Sam Stein.

Many accepted the invitation of the principal to inspect the school grounds and buildings.

U. S. SAVANTS FEAR BRAZIL REVOLTS

RIO DE JANEIRO, March 1 (by mail)—Nine agricultural experts recently employed in the United States by the Brazilian Department of Agriculture, have just arrived in Brazil.

According to the story told by Sr. Oliveira Castro, the Brazilian government's agent sent to employ the experts, he had extreme difficulty in finding men willing to go to Brazil because of the prevailing idea in the United States that revolutions were matters of daily occurrence.

After a great deal of effort and repeated assurances that revolutions took place only in the story books and not in actual Brazilian life, he induced Professors O. T. Clawson, H. H. Cardwell, W. C. Johnston, J. E. Blohm, E. Pithman, R. H. Cook, Maurice Blohm, Dr. K. E. Quantz and Dr. B. T. Harve to leave with him on the steamer "Minas Geraes."

When the "Minas Geraes" arrived in Pernambuco, the first Brazilian port, and as she hauled up to the dock, there was the sound of rifle firing from within the city. There was great curiosity on board the ship, particularly among the Americans, as to what the disturbance meant. A venture-some ship's officer brought back the news that a revolution was in progress. It later turned out that it was a mere celebration over a minor election and nobody was hurt.

But, as Sr. Castro expressed it, "The Americans clapped their hands to their heads."

They arrived safely in Rio de Janeiro and are busy showing the Agricultural Department new stunts in fruit, grain, tobacco and other kinds of culture.

EXPECT SENATE WILL VALIDATE ROAD BONDS

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 21.—The Senate this week is expected to concur in the Assembly's action of last week validating the bond issue for the Coachella Valley highway in Southern California.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE TEMPLE

—The Athlon Company in their production of "The Convict's Daughter," added new laurels to themselves. This little sensational melodrama tells one of the prettiest stories one could wish to see, there being a happy blend of pathos and comedy that makes you wish it would never end. The play deals with the fallacy of convicting a man on circumstantial evidence, and shows how an innocent man served twenty years of a life sentence for a crime he never committed. The scenes and situations reach a climax at times, that fairly makes you want to get out of your seat, go upon the stage, and give the villain a good trouncing. It's a dandy playlet, and made a huge hit at last night's performance. Tonight will be your last opportunity to see it. Wilfred Lucas and Carmel Myers in the Triangle Fine-Arts feature, "A Love Sublime," proved to be one of the most interesting pictures the Temple has ever shown. It will be shown tonight for the last time. This is also "Grocery Night" at the Temple, the management giving away one hundred packages of groceries together with valuable articles in grantware, tinware, kitchen utensils, household goods, etc. These articles are all bought of Santa Ana merchants, and bear the merchant's name, and selling price, so that everyone who gets a prize, can tell what it cost, and where it came from. The Country Store is proving very popular, it being almost impossible to get a seat on that night, unless you get there early.—Adv.

At the West End

For all of his productions, George Behan, the celebrated exponent of Italian characters, selects his own cast and in "His Sweetheart," the Oliver Morosco Paramount Picture in which he will appear at the West End on Thursday and Friday, he has followed this rule. His sweetheart is his own mother whom he has brought over from Sunny Italy to live with him in his tenement basement. With unerring judgment Behan selected Sarah Kernan for this role and she presents one of the most sympathetic characters of an old Italian woman ever seen on stage or screen.

Others in the cast are Helen Jerome Eddy, Harry Devere, Kathleen Kirkham, Robert E. Holson and others.

"A Love Sublime" Tonight

The abbreviated costume of an ancient Greek in the character of Orpheus was worn by Wilfred Lucas in the Hades scene of the Triangle-Fine Arts play, "A Love Sublime," which comes to the New Temple tonight.

Lucas also carried the double-barreled flute of the mythological musician and rescued the beautiful but wayward Eurydice from the infernal regions.

The scene was introduced by Director Tod Browning to establish the connection between the hero of the modern romance as portrayed in the screen production and the Orpheus of old.

Helen Holmes at Princess

The chapter is a succession of thrilling episodes and it is difficult to say which of the many is most sensational. Miss Holmes makes an escape by swinging out over a canyon three thousand feet deep, suspended by her hands on a trolley wire, from which she drops to the roof of a swaying box car, where she lies exhausted while the train speeds fifty miles an hour.

Helen is beset with marriage offers. Behrens, who is determined to marry her for the sake of her fortune, is no more important than is Stephen Holmes, the girl's half brother, who, unaware of the relationship, has fallen madly in love with her. When Holmes' son tells him of his desire to marry the young woman, the father is agast. He makes hasty arrangements with Behrens to have Helen abducted and rushes young Stephen off to the city.

"A Poor Little Rich Girl"

Seldom is such a continuous display of luxurious settings and furnishings evidenced on the screen in one photoplay as is seen in Mary Pickford's newest Arcturion Picture, "A Poor Little Rich Girl," now showing at Clune's Theater.

In keeping with the story which tells of the extravagant display of wealth, many costly scenes were built for this subject, including a beautiful conservatory, with its lily pond, playing fountains, rare birds, and immense botanical display. This set alone occupied the entire length of the immense stage at the big Mary Pickford studio in Fort Lee. Enhanced by artistic lighting and new effects in motion photography these scenes present a fitting background for the beautiful little star.

HERE'S STORY TO FIT FIRST DAY OF SPRING

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 21—

This is the first day of spring and here is a story to fit it. Every year the same robin redbreast returns to the flower garden of Thomas G. Beaham's home and makes his nest in the snow-bell bush. Robbie is easily identified because he has only one leg. Or, if he has another, he never lets it down. He has an eye for beauty, too, this robin. Every spring he brings the prettiest little girl robin of the whole bunch for his mate; and the spot he has chosen for his home is one of the most beautiful and artistic in all Kansas City. Robbie's advent is looked and hoped for by children and grown-ups for a block around. He is expected almost any day.

NEALLEY TELLS POVERTY CAUSE IN SEARCHING LECTURE

Lively Discussions Occur At Meeting Held Under Associated Charities Auspices

Last evening, a responsive audience listened to E. M. Nealley's second lecture on Poverty and Pauperism, which continued the subject from the previous lecture in the Course in Constructive Philanthropy being given in the Intermediate school on first and third Tuesdays under the auspices of the Associated Charities. Nealley illustrated his talk with full and detailed charts.

As to the relative influence of various factors that enter in the "cause" of poverty, Nealley cited figures given in Warner's "American Charities" deduced from 115,174 cases of investigation in American cities, in London and in Germany. The causes were tabulated under two main heads: "Personal Causes" and "Misfortune." Twenty-three per cent of the entire number of cases were found due to Personal Causes; 71 per cent due to Misfortune. Drink was given as the cause in only 11 per cent. Unemployment came in for 20 per cent. Ignorance, accident, sickness, physical defects, insanity, old age, accounted for 43 per cent. Nealley said:

"Theories as to the nature of poverty may be grouped under three heads: Individualistic, Fatalistic and Economic. In each one of these, some one phase or single principle operating has been selected as 'the cause'."

"The essential difference between these earlier one-sided explanations and the present-day view of sociological science is that sociology starts with the notion of a correlation of all forces in a network of causation. Every cause is the result of some other cause. Poverty and misery are not due to any one or main influence, but to a vast number of interlacing and interacting elements. Poverty is so closely allied with every conceivable phase of human existence that to treat poverty inclusively necessitates examining in every detail every other aspect of social life and indicating the inter-relationship which exists."

"Thus the social body moves as a whole. If it moves at all, every 'cause' is interwoven inextricably with every other 'cause' and the problem of poverty must be attacked as a whole situation at a great number of points and by many methods. Poverty is not so much a disease of the poor as a disease of society."

"The individual in society is the net result of three factors in a 'Triangle of Life': Nature (Heredity, equipment), Nurture (Environment, soil, opportunities), and finally, Will (Training, education, etc.). We are the product of what we are, what we have and what we do. The relative influence of these separate factors can never be determined in a given instance, but the significance of this analysis for the social worker is the fact that the work of reclamation must cover these three sides of the triangle in one united forward movement."

"Thus the problem of poverty is being dealt with today in the light of two great conceptions, (1) the correlation of social forces, and (2) the notion of social causation. The latter is the counterpart of 'natural causation' in the physical world, which enabled mankind to master the forces of nature. In the same way the sociologist expects to become master of social forces and control the conditions of human life, in no less a task than that of 'growing humans'."

Remedies for poverty were discussed by Nealley under two general divisions as follows:

"Leading theories heretofore, and the 'modern or sociological approach.' Poverty has been ascribed to the 'incurable ways of Providence.' It is so ordained. Others have held up the 'business' as the cause of poverty in developing character. Malthus and Darwin propounded theories based on the fact of the prodigality of nature, the law of diminishing returns, etc."

"There are too many mouths to feed. Nature attends to keeping down the population by ruthless elimination, allowing the fit to survive."

"Henry George enters a vigorous protest. There are 'not too many mouths to feed,' he declares, 'because for every mouth there are two hands.' Poverty is due to the monopoly of natural resources by a few, thereby depriving the many of access to material."

"Harl Marx advanced the theory of 'surplus labor,' of the exploitation of labor through the ownership of land, machinery and the instruments of production. The moralist and the individualist insist that poverty has its roots in the weakness of individual character, hence the remedy is education through the family, the church and the school. The Christian Socialist believes that poverty is due to the un-Christian principle of competition, and holds up the Sermon on the Mount as the constitution of society and the only solvent of social ills."

"The sociologist of today approaches the problem from the general point of view of maladjustment in human society. There are subnormal individuals and classes of people, and there are also subnormal conditions and subnormal industries. Each one of these must be attacked by appropriate methods."

Speaking more specifically, various proposed methods were discussed under the two general heads, such as, Health insurance, Minimum wage legislation, Prohibition of child labor, Old age pensions, Building Restriction for city tenements, Penal reforms, Night schools, etc."

"The problem of eugenics came in for considerable discussion relative to controlling the mentally defective classes. According to Alex Johnson the 'feeble-minded family' is reproducing itself three times as fast as the normal family," said Nealley. "This is serious, and some way should be devised to prevent these classes from reproducing their kind, for they invariably breed true to kind."

"Some methods that have been suggested are, segregation in colonies or institutions, sterilization (which is provided for in a limited degree in this and other states), 'painless extinction,' and birth control. Whatever method be the most approved, the fact is certain that both in the interest of the individual and of society, the mentally defective should be restricted from bringing his progeny into the world."

There was lively discussion, sometimes as many as four at once asking questions on heredity, environmental influence, etc. Dr. Cushman took part in the discussion, giving some of his own experience in dealing with the problem of the feeble-minded.

THOUSANDS ARE GIVEN MEALS AT RELIEF STATION

Captain Carroll of Salvation Army Issues Statement and Appeal For More Funds

An annual statement issued by Captain Carroll of the Salvation Army for the year ending March 11, 1917, tells briefly the splendid work the local army is doing for the relief of the poor.

The Relief Station maintained by the Army at 818 East Third street has supplied 5,046 meals and 2,562 beds during the year.

Captain Carroll still needs more funds with which to carry on his work and make it as effective as he would like to. His recapitulation of the year's work and appeal for more regular monthly contributions is as follows:

From March 12, 1916, to March 11, 1917, the Salvation Army in Santa Ana has supplied to the needy, 5,046 meals and 2,562 beds. They have distributed 890 garments and 311 pairs of shoes. They have secured 225 jobs for the men and 36 jobs for women. Wood has been cut and distributed to poor families, as well as furniture, groceries, bedding, etc.

The prison is visited weekly, where services are held and the prisoners are helped on release to find suitable employment. Street meetings are held as well as indoor meetings during the week, and numbers have been influenced to live better lives. In addition to the regular meetings, a class has been started Saturday afternoons for the children.

Our relief station located at 818 East Third street is fitted up to properly care for the transient men. Hot baths are supplied as well as facilities for washing and fumigating the men's clothes. This institution has a free employment agency, also a wood yard in connection, and no one is turned away.

Every man, irrespective of creed, color or nationality, is given a chance to make good, and many have done so. The need of adequate finances is great. Will you help in this very necessary work? Make all cheques payable to the Salvation Army, addressed to Captain Carroll, 823 East First street.

TUSTIN

PARTY GIVEN BY MEN OF BIBLE CLASS A HIT

Shamrock Souvenir Presented To Each Guest As Irish Motif Prevails

TUSTIN, Mar. 20.—The members of the men's Bible class of the Tustin Presbyterian Sunday school were hosts at a party given last Saturday night at the home of W. L. Leiby.

The members of the Berean class, who are many of them wives of the members of the men's class, and many friends outside of both were invited and hospitably entertained, the men assuming the responsibility of entertaining.

St. Patrick's day decorations in green and white were used, each one presenting a shamrock souvenir.

Mr. Leiby attended to the music of Irish melodies on the Victrola and autolipiano which were all of the prettiest and were much enjoyed.

The games played were some of them very funny and others quite instructive. The women had a good time while the men made the sandwiches and coffee which were delicious and plentiful, but the most bountiful provision was made in the ice cream and white and dark cake. The serving of refreshments was gracefully and generously done and the unique party was immensely enjoyed by the women.

JOE BURKE IN THE LIMELIGHT AT THE CAPITOL

(Special to the Register)
SACRAMENTO, March 21.—The speech of Assemblyman Joe C. Burke of Santa Ana, "the Irishman from Orange County," was one of the biggest hits of the St. Patrick's Day banquet at the Travelers' Hotel. He responded to the toast, "The Irish of Orange County." Joe has a splendid speaking voice and he was in good "form" in addressing his audience on this Irish occasion.

Burke is one of the most popular members of the Assembly. When he arose to speak his hearers demanded, "What's the matter with Joe Burke?" in the standard form of no uncertain terms, and the crowd echoed his own answer in stentorian tones, "He's all right!"

Just to show that there is versatility to the color scheme of Joseph, just one week earlier he was a week later enveloped in emerald. With Assemblyman Crombie Allen of Ontario, and Robert Horbach of Porterville, representing the great orange-growing counties of Orange, San Bernardino and Tulare, he drafted a joint resolution, adopted unanimously by the Assembly, designating March 10 as California Orange Day for 1917.

Although a member of the so-called minority of the Assembly, Burke is one of the best-liked and most popular members of the whole body, and his legislation does not suffer a bit because he is not of the so-called majority.

OVERDRILLING IN GAS FIELDS

The magnitude and intensive cultivation of the oil and gas fields of Orange County add to and localize the interest and importance of a recent report of the U. S. Geological Survey in which it is pointed out that closely drilled gas fields are short lived. Overdrilling, the bulletin says, is strikingly evident in the Cleveland (Ohio) gas field, where it has led to considerable financial loss.

Ohio has long been a large producer of natural gas, but the gas in Cuyahoga County, which is in the northeastern part of the State, has only recently been commercially exploited. The exploitation of the Cleveland field began early in 1912 with the completion of several successful wells in the western part of the city of Cleveland. Within four years more than 900 wells, most of which struck gas, had been drilled in an area of about twenty-five square miles. The excessively close drilling in many parts of this area has resulted in a rapid decline of the output of individual wells, and the older part of the field is destined to be short lived. This field is of interest because it is close to a great manufacturing city that has long been a consumer of large quantities of natural gas, and the un-economic character of its development is thus especially unfortunate.

REAL REVOLUTIONS

There is revolution in Russia because only by revolution could freedom and popular government in Russia be made possible. There is no revolution yet in Germany, and unless revolution is forced by starvation or defeat, there is no indication of the likelihood of such a revolution. But by gift from above, instead of by force from below, revolution in Germany is already practically accomplished. Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg only the other day promised the German people immediately at the close of the war reforms as radical as any revolution could have demanded. The reforms, to be sure, were, like the reforms of the Russian revolution, confined to what the Socialists call a "middle class revolution." They were the things for which the revolutionists of the eighteenth century fought—for political freedom, and for the control of government by the direct vote of the people. The economic revolution which is more characteristic of the twentieth century is not mentioned in either the Russian demands or the German concessions. In Germany, however, so much economic revolution had already been accomplished from above by imperial ukase that there is less anachronism in confining the present reforms to the political revolution. And in Germany the political revolution is particularly important.

It is probably little realized in this country how far the German government has been from the direct control of the people. In the national government the members of the Reichstag are, to be sure, elected by direct, equal, universal suffrage. But these members, when elected, have only a veto power on legislation and the districts from which they are elected have not been changed since 1871. In the interval, the radical districts have increased enormously in population, while the conservative districts have decreased, both relatively and absolutely, in population. It is in the Prussian state government, however, that the greatest undemocracy prevails. Under the constitution of the Prussian state, all power belongs to the King, who is also the Emperor of Germany, except such powers as may be taken away from him by the constitution. The upper house of the state parliament is partly appointive by the King and partly the hereditary privilege of certain houses. This upper house has the sole right to introduce legislation and has practical control of legislation. The lower house is elected by the people under the curious "three-class system," under which about two per cent of the very rich cast one-third of the votes, about eight per cent of the rich cast another third of the votes, and the remaining nine-tenths of the population cast the other third of the votes. A more autocratic system, short of the absolute monarchy of Russia, could scarcely be conceived. It is this system which the imperial chancellor has definitely promised shall be ended.

The government of Germany, without revolution, will be made practically as liberal as that of England. The government of Russia, if the revolution prevails, will be as liberal as that of France. And the government of England will be made as efficient as that of Germany. It is revolution, all around—Fresno Republican.

HUNTINGTON'S STATEMENT

Editor Register:—I want to correct a statement in your paper yesterday under the head of "Huntington and Jackman Come to Blows."

In the first place it was Jackman that gave me the lie; and I did not hit Jackman and he did not ask me to do so. I shook my fist in his face and told him I had a notion to baste him one; then he struck me. Other parties quickly got between us and kept us apart, and after I started away, with my back to him, he struck me in the back of the neck.

I never expressed any regrets to any one.

Otherwise your article has some semblance of truth.

Yours truly,

E. G. HUNTINGTON.

Editor's Note—The foregoing is printed in fairness to Mr. Huntington, and without prejudice against Mr. Jackman—just as there was no prejudice against Mr. Huntington in the Register's report of yesterday.

That report was based upon the statements of several eye-witnesses to the encounter.

It is a notorious and somewhat mysterious fact, constantly brought out in newspaper reporting and in testimony given in courts, that no two witnesses ever tell exactly the same story about a personal encounter, and that frequently the stories of respective witnesses, as well as of the respective participants, are absolutely contradictory.

WITH MALICE TOWARD NONE

By Henry James

Choosing a Wife

In Chicago a professor has been lecturing on How to Choose a Wife.

The matter is wholly outside the jurisdiction of any professor, except as to his own wife, in which case he would resent interference.

When a wise guy arises to tell assembled human beings that affection has no part in the choice, that a kiss in courtship is out of place and that the occasion must be ruled by intellect alone, he is humorous without knowing it.

Not necessarily is a man crazy in the head because he has fallen in love, but he does not reason coolly, and he gets the girl if he can. The occasion is not one for sober reasoning. Were it so regarded the marriage relation would sort of fade away.

No man with a living to make, and a career to fashion, would dare to ask a girl to take chances with him if he paused to reflect.

Spoiling a Monopoly

Los Angeles has broken into the fish monopoly by procuring large quantities of fish and selling them at a reasonable price.

The fish trust is much perturbed at what it regards as a scalpy piece of business.

A combination that is first cousin to this particular trust was caught near San Francisco dumping edible fish back into the sea by the ton.

Not a Great Poet

Recently the Mikado wrote a poem. To pass judgment upon it would be unfair, because it may have suffered in translation.

Allowing for this, the original must have been vastly superior to the average free verse that cavorts about the edge of the head of letters in this country. It could have been rotten and still superior.

As Broken Hearts

Count Zeppelin is said to have died of a broken heart, which seems a bit far-fetched.

Doubtless the count had been disappointed, but having reached the age of seventy-eight, after a strenuous career, his hold on life was frail and

"JESUS, THE PACIFIST"

Bryan once said that Teddy would have named Jesus a mollycoddle. The "peace at any price" man, however unpopular in this materialistic age, is obeying the precept of Jesus. The Sermon on the Mount taught absolute non-resistance to evil, which is a perfect definition of "peace at any price." If you believe in Jesus you not only will refuse to prepare to kill, but will decline to enter a killing match after it is stirred up.

Jesus said, "But I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you."—Matt. V: 44.

Those who do not believe in returning good for evil and loving their enemies, should quit pretending to believe in Jesus of Nazareth. They should say what they think, that Jesus was a visionary crank, a mollycoddle lacking in red blood and deficient in patriotism; fold their mantle of piety and peace on earth, good will to men, which they value chiefly as a business asset and lay it away in their new and come out the other six days boosting for more machinery of murder. Then when they brag about being on their side, name him rightly as his Satanic Majesty, the Devil.

THE DOCTOR'S BILL

To discuss a doctor's bill is a delicate matter. Such a bill might appear to be excessive, and yet really be moderate. Nevertheless one is rendered thoughtful by reading that a doctor has sued for services in connection with the amputation of a woman's leg, naming the figure at $812,500.

This would strike the crude and hasty judgment of a layman as being a cold took him just as it has taken many a stronger man.

separation by pulling, rather by the use of the knife, particularly as the patient did not survive the absent member long.

Cutting off a leg is so simple a matter that aspiring students are suspected of doing it for fun, but the price mentioned elevates it to a high and mighty function.

The Dog's Enemy
I sincerely hope that the man who proposes to have a law enacted for the torture and maiming of cats and dogs will fail to get the measure through.

If he wants something tortured, let him stretch himself on a dissecting table and ask the doctors to turn loose with knives and shears and pin-cers. It may be that he deserves something for his sins anyhow.

Dogs and cats couldn't by any possibility earn the fate that he is trying to arrange for them.

It can't be that the measure will get through. Why, I know several members of the Legislature myself and they are quite human.

Getting Too Busy
Oklahoma's Legislature wants to pay a prize to the first person sinking a submarine.

Tut! tut! Hasn't that state any business of its own?

Viewed With Suspicion
Recently the mayor of Seattle was placed on trial charged with conspiracy, and the chief witness against him was a man whose career had been criminal, his offenses consisting mostly of breaking prohibition laws in various states.

Perhaps he was telling the truth, but if so, how was the jury to know it? A rogue caught in the corner turns on his pals, and it would delight him to turn against those whom he had desired to have as pals.

Handicapped
Cuban rebels always will be handicapped unless they can induce the American marine to keep away.

How the marine does delight to stop a muss!

AN-URIC!

The Newest Discovery in Chemistry.

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Dr. Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid is the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "An-uric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "An-uric" manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or even write Dr. Pierce for a free sample. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Dr. Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you without fee or charge.

NOTE—"An-uric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children, but should be used only by grown-ups who actually wish to restore their kidneys to perfect health, by conscientiously using one box—or more in extreme cases—as "An-uric" (thanks to Doctor Pierce's achievement) is by far the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector obtainable.

A GREAT OFFER

If you will cut this out and send 3 dimes to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., you will receive a 1,000-page book, bound in handsome cloth, fully illustrated, all charges prepaid.

LIVE NEWS GATHERED FROM GARDEN GROVE

CANTATA GIVEN AT M. E. CHURCH BIG SUCCESS

GARDEN GROVE, Mar. 21.—A crowded house enjoyed the cantata given at the Methodist church Friday night.

The cantata, "Joy to the World," was given by the chorus choir of the Methodist church of Orange, under the direction of H. A. Farrar. The chorus is a well balanced one of thirty voices, and is exceptionally well trained, the solos, duets and quartets being effectively rendered and the chorus far above the average. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Sunday school of the Methodist church and was given in honor of the junior Baraca class, which at that time was leader in the contest in which the school is engaged, a transcontinental automobile race from Garden Grove to New York City via the Lincoln highway. Each Sunday school class has an automobile in which to make the race and credits are given for various achievements, which advance them a number of miles, such as securing new scholars, increased attendance, and increased collections.

There is, of course, always the danger of engine trouble, or tire trouble, and set backs occur whenever there is tardiness or decrease in attendance or collections. The junior Baraca class, taught by B. F. Anderson, having reached Cheyenne, Wyo., first, were the honored ones last Friday night. The second entertainment will be given next week, the nature of which is not yet announced, and the Signa Beta class of young ladies will be the honored ones, they having passed the junior Baracas and reached Chicago first.

A banquet for the entire school will celebrate the arrival at New York City. The Sunday school, under the superintendency of William Morrill, is at present the largest in its history, it having averaged 215 for the month of March and has for its goal 250 by Easter.

CRISIS OF WOMAN'S LIFE

Vegetable Compound.

Wagoner, Okla.—"I never get tired of praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because during Change of Life I was in bed two years and had two operations, but all the doctors and operations did me no good, and I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through the crisis."

which brought me out of it all right, so I am now well and do all my housework, besides working in my garden. Several of my neighbors have got well by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. VIOLA FINICAL, Wagoner, Okla.

3 CASH REALTY DEALS MADE AT GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, Mar. 21.—It is beginning to seem like old times to see and hear of so many people looking around for real estate and Orange county is truly the Garden spot. The Jackson Real Estate Company reports three cash sales in the last few weeks. Dr. J. G. Berneike of Tustin bought ten acres three miles northwest of town; Albert Moog of Long Beach bought the William Mills twenty acres adjoining town on the north, and five acres was sold to a resident of Garden Grove.

"Through the Heart of Africa by Caravan and Canoe," illustrated lecture of the life of David Livingston, at the M. E. church Sunday evening, was a very impressive one, giving the story of this wonderful man from the time of his birth at Blantyre, Scotland, in 1831, until his death in 1873.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Smith gave a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Monte Preston. After spending a most delightful evening with music and games, the merry party retired to the yard, where they were greeted with a cheerful bonfire and served to a most appetizing "weenie" bake. Mr. and Mrs. Preston move about the first of next month to Los Angeles, where Mr. Preston is employed with the Sun Drug Company at Seventh and Spring streets. Their bungalow on Twenty-eighth street is almost ready for occupancy. Mr. and Mrs. Preston are very popular in Garden Grove and will be greatly missed by a host of friends as well as by their relatives.

On Tuesday, Royal B. Richey moved the household goods of Rev. Wm. Thomas to Escondido where Rev. Thomas will have charge of the Baptist church. He was for several years pastor of the Baptist church here, having resigned the latter part of 1916.

Milo Allen and Geo. Tyler accompanied Mr. Richey, going down on the truck for an outing.

AMERICA AT LAST IN INDEPENDENCE OF GERMAN DYES

NEW YORK, March 21.—Cheers and repeated waving of the Stars and Stripes greeted the announcement of chemists and manufacturers and government experts at the Textile club dinner at the Hotel Martineque that America is practically independent of Europe in the manufacture of coal tar dyes and chemicals for high explosives and is prepared to stay in the world's markets after the war is over.

I. F. Stone of the National Aniline and Chemical Company, said that American manufacturers are now able to produce all the necessary colors and the dyestuffs industry of this country is on a permanent basis. The production of coal tar derivatives, like benzol and naphthalene, he said, is now from five to ten times more than before the war. The new tariff gives the American manufacturer better protection, he added.

"The manufacturers of intermediates and colors," he said, "have during the war been able to obtain, owing to abnormal conditions, an abnormal rate of profit, and out of this abnormal profit they have been able to build and pay for their factories as well as accumulate a surplus profit which they can use for the further increase for their present production and the working out of the special colors not now manufactured here."

MINEOLA, L. I., March 21.—Many dwellers in the western section of Long Island are becoming accustomed to having aeroplanes almost constantly overhead. Twelve aeroplanes from the government aviation depot at Hempstead Plains are forming a continuous patrol from Rockaway Point to Manhasset Neck.

This is simply a police patrol, efficiency of the blockade is tested by two fast machines from Governor Island. These are painted with bright red stripes, so that they may be easily recognized and make determined efforts to break through the blockade and reach Hempstead Plains, where they seek to "bomb" the hangers of the aviation depot.

In addition to guarding against the "hostile" machines, the patrol planes map the country over which they fly and take photographs. They note any

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

LONG USED ROAD TO BE PUBLIC HIGHWAY

A road which has been travelled for many years, running along the north line of the city limits, west from Flower street, will become a public highway when a city council committee appointed in the matter has completed its investigation and secured deeds from owners of land within the city fronting on the road.

Deeds from C. S. Minter, Eleanor M. Minter and Nannie Wiedy were accepted by the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon. The deeds are for strips necessary for the road.

The board acted upon a number of petitions and applications as follows:

The petition of R. Mapson et al for the abandoning of a road in the Orange road district was granted.

The Pacific Electric Company was given permission to make flats and excavations necessary for its crossing of Ocean avenue on its line from La Habra to Fullerton.

Spraying licenses were issued to Slate Stanfield, Frank E. Partridge and Wm. Vogel on recommendation of Horticultural Commissioner Bishop.

A map of Logsdon's addition to Yorba Linda was accepted.

The application of Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company for permission to make an excavation on Yorba Linda boulevard west of Eureka street, Placentia, was granted.

Fred H. Bixby was given permission to deepen the gutter on the east side of the Bolsa Chico road south to the Hellman ranch.

L. A. NEWSBOYS LAUNCH BIG PROTEST AGAINST LYONS BILL PASSAGE

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Declaring that State Senator Lyons must have forgotten the days he used to "hustle" papers, and has gone back on the kids who support families by selling papers, more than 200 newsboys have their signatures affixed to resolutions sent to Sacramento today, urging defeat of Senate Bill 101, prohibiting boys under 14 from carrying or selling papers.

The resolution was adopted at a mass meeting held last night. At this, not only the present newsboys, but men high in public life who used to sell papers, took a prominent part. Mothers were present, too, to declare that unless the boys could sell or deliver papers, it would be impossible for many of them to continue going to school, owing to financial conditions in their homes.

Everett H. Hancock, special agent of the labor commission, is en route to Sacramento today to work for the newsboys.

MITCHELL GIVES OPINION

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 21.—Manager Mitchell of the Cubs likes California, but it's no place to train a ball club, in his opinion, voiced today. Climate, diamonds and hotels are good, but smokers with hot wienies, enchilada and musty beer don't go.

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 21.—The presence of Gov. Stephens and "Shuffling Phil" Douglas were too much for the Seals and the Cubs won, 5 to 2. Douglas allowed four hits in five innings and Hendrix held the Seals helpless during the rest of the contest.

For over forty years the concentrated liquid-food in Scott's Emulsion has been changing thinness to plumpness—changing poor blood to rich blood.

There is nothing better for growing children—whether they are weak or well—than Scott's Emulsion, but see that you get the genuine Scott's.

CAL. PRISON CELL AWAITS WEAVER WHEN TERM IN OHIO ENDS

Man Who Violated Confidence of S. A. Men to Be Brought Here For Trial

Irwin Weaver, the man who showed his appreciation of the kindnesses shown him by Rev. J. A. Stevenson by selling Stevenson's machine and pocketing the money, and who sold a machine for Charles L. Davis to Emerson Marks of Fullerton and kept the money, will be returned to the state penitentiary when his term in Ohio expires unless he is prosecuted for the crimes committed here. He was out on parole at the time of operations here, and E. H. Whyte, state parole officer, has advised the sheriff's office that he will authorize the Ohio officers to turn Weaver over to him unless it is the desire of the sheriff to press the charges here. Weaver had five months to serve when he was paroled.

Weaver was sentenced to two years in the East, and Deputy Sheriff Maxwell stated today that he would be brought here for trial just as soon as he is released from the penitentiary.

Quiet Title Suits

The filing of a quiet title suit here by A. L. Evans against Patrick Joseph Conaty, J. P. Edwards, et al, indicates that a sanitarian project for Seal Beach has gone a-glimmering. County bought lots 11 and 13, block 5, Bay City, on contract and it was understood that the lots were being secured as a site for a sanitarium.

The First National Bank of Newport Beach has brought suit against S. F. Dimock, as administrator of the estate of Mae Dimock to quiet title to lot 2, block 12, First addition to Newport Heights. H. C. Head is attorney for plaintiffs in both cases.

Special Humane Officer

Deputy Assessor Robert Skiles has been appointed a special officer of the Orange County Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Appointed Appraisers

J. N. Anderson, L. B. Steward and J. M. Callan have been appointed appraisers of the estate of Alexander Gardner.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

DR. HARVEY ON STAND DENIES HIS GUILT

Dr. C. W. Harvey, Anaheim physician charged with having performed an illegal operation which resulted in the death of Mrs. A. E. Baker at Anaheim on February 15, this afternoon took the witness stand in his preliminary hearing in Justice Cox's court and told of his connection with the case and treatment. He denied absolutely that he administered any treatment to the deceased that was criminal or that was the cause of her death. He will probably not complete his testimony before tomorrow.

Dr. A. H. Domann, of Orange, who as county physician conducted the autopsy following the death of Mrs. A. E. Baker at Anaheim on February 15th, was called to the witness stand this morning and proved rather a better witness for the defense than the prosecution. He stated that the condition which the accused is alleged to have operated for could not have existed. The prosecution rested its case with introduction of his testimony.

Dr. Truxaw, testifying yesterday afternoon, attributed death to kidney disease.

ANNOUNCES BIG CHAUTAUQUA TO START APR. 26

A. B. Gardner, chairman of the Chautauqua committee, has been advised by Chas. F. Horner, manager of the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua, that April 26-May 2 has been selected for Chautauqua week here.

The committee is rapidly getting plans in shape for the big week. It has already decided to locate the big tent on the same grounds occupied last year.

The Register was advised today by J. P. Rodabaugh of the Chautauqua that arrangements have been completed for bringing both William Jennings Bryan and Gov. R. M. Patterson here during the week.

ASSEMBLYMAN SHOWS WIRES AS SUPPORT IN TEXT BOOK BATTLE

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 21.—To aid him in his fight for state publication of high school text books whenever possible, Assemblyman Dan Williams has telegrams and letters from various parts of the state, including this telegram from principal P. M. Fisher of the Oakland high school:

"Statement of Will C. Wood and others regarding statement that all high school principals were opposed to uniform text books is not altogether true. I believe certain high school text books should be uniform."

Williams contends that if certain high school books are made uniform the state printers can turn them out at a big saving. So he is conducting a campaign to amend the Harris bill so the state printers would have a chance. In its present form, says Williams, the bill is wholly in favor of the Eastern book trust.
